BUFFALO TESTIMONY. THE PEOPLE'S CURE

"I was troubled with Rheumatism for two years, suffering more or less every day. I have taken two bottles of the 'People's Cure,' and have not had any pain since I left it off more than four weeks ago. I consider myself as entirely cured, and the medicine has made me feel very light and good—just like a young man, though I am sixty-two years old.

"My wife has been suffering from Rheumatism of an infiammatory character for about six or seven years, sometimes very soutely. About the first of June last she commenced taking the 'People's Cure,' and continued to take it some three weeks. In ten days after she commenced, the swelling and stiffness of her joints had materially lessened, and in three weeks had disappeared altogether.

"My wife has been lu poor health for a long time having frequently to call a physician to attend her; but she was recently very much worse. She had night sweats coughed a great deal during each night and considerably during the day, and we all supposed she was going off with the consumption, when a friend advised her to take the 'People's Cure.' On taking the medicine she perceived a change at once. On the third day she had recovered her appetite, and was tastregaining her strength, until on the eighth day, not yet having taken one bottle, she has stopped taking the medicine, saying she was as well as ever she was, and as well as a say body could be, and she has continued so ever since.

What on earth will rebel sympathizers say now, after the outrage and insult which the rebel leaders have offered to poor white men? In order to secure the services of their slaves in the field, they are going to set them free and give them fifty acres of land each, while the poor whites are to remain landless beggars, perhaps the tenants of the negroes. and for a time they were scarcely molested in their work of murder and rapine.-The final engagement, which resulted in such complete discomfiture to Price, took such complete discomfiture to Price, took place on the 28th of Oct. and was one of the most brilliant battles of the war. The rebels made two stands, one at Trading Post, north of Mineral City, and the last on the Maries des Cygnes. Price commanding in person, and had not less than 15,000 men opposed to our 6,000. Gen. Pleasunton com Pleasanton commanding our forces, and after mallouvering a short time in the rebel front, ordered a charge on their left flank. For some reason Price had massed his men on his right, and when our caval ry, with drawn sabres, rushed on the left. of the rebel line, they won a most com plete victory. The rebel artillery was taken, and their troops driven back in a panic. Their officers tried in vain to rally them to recapture the artillery, and it was during this attempt to reform the rebel line that Major General Marmakuke and Brigadier General Cabell were captured by our forces. About one hundred and eighty other officers, from colonels to second lieutenants, were made prisoners during the day. Price was unable to bring his men back to their work, and although outnumbering us more than two to one, they rereated in a panic. Price himself order ed the rebel wagons destroyed -- not, however, until many loads of plunder had been recaptured by our cavalry. Our losses

Further they could not go with safety without rest -Blunt, Curtiss and McNiel, with all the fresh horses they could raise at Fort Scott and vicinity, kept up the pursuit and followed the rebels back into Missouri. Price was most theroughy cleaned out. He brought into Missouri sixteen pieces of artillery-two Parrotts, two James rifles, two brass mountain howitzers two iron howitzers, six smooth bore guns, and four very light steel rifled guns. Of these guns two were captured at Independence, one disabled at Jefferson City, one burst at Westport, and nine were captured by Pleasanton. So that Price had but three eft, and two of these the light pieces for which he has no ammunition. Six hundred and twenty rebel prisoners from the army of Price arrived at St. Louis on the 6th, on their way to Rock Island prison. The officers, fifty-seven in num-ber, were sent to Johnson's Island. The prisoners are all Missouri and Arkansas nen. The latter complain bitterly of the treatment received from Price. They were kept in the rear while the Missourians went in advance and secured the plunler. At the time of the rout the spoils had not been divided, and were nearly all burned by Price after his defeat. The prisoners at St. Louis are but a part of the host captured by Pleasi main at Fort Scott, Mound City, Paoli, Kansas City, &c. Crowds of people assembled to see the prisoners at St. Louis, who were in a pitiful plight. The Democrats says: The rebels were the roughest looking set of men we ever saw. There was hardly a man among them in healthy looking condition. Their faces were lean, haggard and cadaverous, their cheeks sunken, their forms bowed and their whole appearance wretched in the extreme. Among them were quite a number of boys of from fourteen to sixteen years, and a few men over fifty. They were all clad in rags; some without shoes, some without hats, some with greasy blankets or ragged strips of carpeting thrown over their shoulders.-The prevailing style was butternut, two or three officers only being dressed in what had once been regular rebel uniforms. Not a few of them were sick and scarcely able to walk. SPEECH OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN. On Tuesday night, President Lincoln was serenaded by a Pennsylvania club.-

I do not pretend to say that you who think so embrace all the pat riotism and loyalty of the country, but I do believe, and I trust without personal interest, that the welfare of the country does require that such support and endorsement be given. I earnestly believe that the consequences of this day's work, if it be as you assume, and as now seems probable, will be to the lasting advantage, if not the very salvation of the country. From the Springfield (III.) Republican The President of the United States made his maiden speech in Sangamon Co. at Pappasville (for Richland) in the year 1832. He was then a Whig and was a candidate for Legislature of this State. The speech is sharp and sensible. To understand why it was so short the following facts will show; First Mr. Lincoln was a young man, say twenty-two years of age, and timid. Sec ond, his friends and opponents, in the joint discussions, had rolled the sun nearly down. Mr. Lincoln saw it was not the The Pine Tree Tar Cordial gives instantaneous relief in cases of Asthma and Whooping
